

Soccer Training Session Information

Course Description

Do you want to improve your soccer skills? Sign up for a football training session now. We conduct training sessions tailored to the level of the participants. You will take a level test when you visit our soccer session for the first time. Our team of experts will evaluate your skills and encourage sessions that meet your level.

The session will be divided into basic and advanced levels. The basic level session teaches you a sense of the ball and basic skills such as passing, dribbling, and shooting. We have one-week and two- week courses.

The advanced level session teaches you the tactical part of soccer and what you need to develop by playing real matches. For close evaluation, there are one-month and two-month courses for advanced levels.
